Inspired Crib Bedding

Sunday, March 01, 2009

Over the past year I have really gotten into the whole modern look. I really just love the way it looks, so when I saw Inspired Crib Bedding I was in love. I have been trying to get ideas for baby shower gifts, and also on re-doing the girls room.

When we received the adorable Geox Pink & Green Pillow, I knew that this was definitely a theme I wanted to look into. Sarah took to the pillow instantly, and has been sleeping with it since. Two reasons she loves it, one it is very soft and she loves the softness of the fabric on her skin, and two it is only 12" x 16" so it makes it a perfect size for her to tote it around. And trust me she does! I catch her dragging it with her blankie everywhere.

Add the finishing touch to your baby bedding with a decorative pillow. One side of the pillow is soft minky while the other comes in 100% cotton print, which you can coordinate with your crib bedding.

Inspired Crib Bedding offers adorable crib bedding sets for both boys and girls, along with everything you need to make baby's room special. They offer bedding, pillows, wall prints, changing pad covers. You can get matching swaddle blankets, towels, and even stroller blankets.
